

CONGRESS BACKS WILSON IN STAND ON ARMED SHIPS

HOUSE VOTES 256 TO 160 ON THE RULE PREVENTING RESO-LUTION CHANGE.

EXPECT TO TABLE THE MEASURE

Vote Indicates Majority By Which the Warning Resolution Will Be Tabled.

(Associated Press)

Washington, Mich. 7.—President Wilson's stand that congress shall not advise Americans to abandon their rights to travel the seas on merchant ships armed for defense according to international law, was endorsed by the house today by two heavy votes on the McLeMore warning resolution.

Vote Was 256 To 160.

The first vote, 256 to 160, removed the opportunity for amending the McLeMore resolution, and the second victory for the administration came when an rule providing for four hours debate on the motion to table the resolution was adopted, 271 to 136.

At about 6:30 o'clock this evening the administration forces will move to table the resolution, which a third vote is expected will be taken by a heavy majority.

With the agitation disposed of, Wilson and Lansing will resume negotiations with Germany.

McKenzie and Fuller of Illinois voted against the president.

Washington, Mich. 7.—The House assembled at 11 o'clock this morning for an all-day fight on the administrative forces to kill the McLeMore resolution to warn Americans to keep off armed ships. Prospects of a sensational debate attracted a record crowd of men, women and children.

Porters in Fight.

In the house barber shop two porters became involved in an argument over the situation, used strong language and fought with toilet water bottles. Both were arrested.

Presents New Rule.

Acting Chairman Pou of the rules committee offered a special rule under which the house would be obliged to proceed. He obtained unanimous consent for ninety minutes debate on the rule and the house cheered when in his opening speech he said that "all the imps of hell never devised a more infamous lie than that declaring that President Wilson wants war."

Three Roll Calls.

At the end of the debate on the rule a vote on a motion for the "previous question"—a motion to end debate on the rule itself—will be in order. This, under the plan of the leaders, would be the first roll call. Then a vote on the adoption of the rule itself, making the second roll call, will be taken.

The adoption of the rule will make four hours' debate on the McLeMore resolution itself, with another roll call at the close on a motion to dispose of the resolution. This is expected to be a motion to table. The expectation of three roll calls is based on the assumption that the rule will carry.

"Stab the President."

"If the rule is defeated," said Representative Harrison, democrat, "you will send joy to the people of a foreign capital and at the same time will stab your president in the back."

Page Antagonistic.

Representative Page of North Carolina, a brother of U. S. Ambassador Page at London, announced in a letter to his constituents that he will not be a candidate for re-election because he disagrees with the president in the submarine controversy. The announcement was made in a letter to his constituents.

DREW $20.37 OVER ITS EXPENSES
FOR PLAYING IN ROCK-FORD MEETING.

Rockford: Manager Bailey of the basketball tournament mailed checks amounting to $957 Friday to the 17 visiting teams which competed.

All teams got a bonus above expenses this year, as was the case last year—on account of the heavy receipts, and as this condition existed in but very few of the tournaments, the local management should be congratulated upon stimulating the interest shown here.

Harlem Consolidated drew the smallest check of the lot, getting $29.98, while Waukegan was the heavy shareholder with $93.35.

The letter sent out to the various teams shows that $1740 was taken in at the meet, of which 40 per cent went to the home management, 5 per cent to the state association and the remaining 55 per cent to the visiting visiting teams. Rockford's share of the gross receipts was $696, of which $447 was paid out in expenses, leaving $249 as net gain to the local association.

Byron, Elizabeth, Belvidere, Huntley, Freeport, Harlem and Polo received $20.38 over expenses, while the remaining ten teams received $20.37. The amount received by each team follows:

	Exp.	Check
Byron	$39.72	$61.40

After one or two witnesses had testified the jury awarded the defendants $305.50 for the one and one-tenth acres of land.

TAXES ARE SOON DELINQUENT

Payment Should Be Made on Personal Property By Friday.

The time for the payment of personal taxes is about up and after March 19 they become delinquent, after which time the collector has the right to levy on property to satisfy the tax in instances where it has not been paid. The district collector is held responsible for the collection of personal taxes and he is released only when he can show that he has made effort to collect and found no property on which to levy, or else where the person has moved out of the county. The personal tax has been paid up quite well in most of the townships, yet there are always a few who put off until the last minute.

SERVANT IN HOUSE PLEASED BIG CROWD

ONE OF MOST DELIGHTFUL NUM-BERS IN COURSE PRESENT-ED LAST EVENING

The beautiful and somewhat unusual story of "The Servant in the House," written by Charles Rann Kennedy, and produced last evening by William Owen and his talented and brilliant company at the Opera House last evening was greeted by a capacity audience.

The Redpath Lyceum Bureau has never produced a more educative, delightful and thrilling attraction than "The Servant in the House" given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. lecture course, and which so thoroughly pleased the entire audience. It is a high class drama demanding much of its actors and actresses—and so gifted was the cast producing this play that one fairly lived the scenes with them; real life of the higher English class people and clergy was produced with striking clearness. William Owen as Robert—is a genius, and Joshua, the Servant in the House; Mary, Martha, William, Roger, and the redoubtable Bishop of Lancashire, all enacted their difficult roles to a charming and realistic climax. Such a play is much food for thought and leaves one satisfied and uplifted, with confidence and trust in fellow men. It was truly one of the most beautiful dramas ever enacted in Dixon, leaving with the audience that subtle, indelible sense of having listened to a superb sermon; nothing dogmatic nor prosy, but with the sweet and beautiful spirit of the Servant in the House.

TWO MINUTE COUNCIL MEETING

Morning Session

The session of the city council was exceedingly brief this morning, and only about two and a half minutes elapsed from the time the meeting was called to order until the motion to adjourn was made. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sunday of Franklin Grove were in Dixon today.

Great War Is Making Man See Religion As Never Before

Rochelle, Mich. 6.—"Man is naturally religious. The basic principle of religion underlies society. The present European war is making man see the spirit of religion as he never saw it before."

The speaker was Rev. A. B. Whitcombe of Dixon, former rector of the Episcopal mission in this city, as he addressed a meeting of the People's Sunday Evening club in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Rev. Whitcombe speaking on "The Religion of Man," said in part:

"And the Lord formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul." Genesis 1:17. "Man at heart is religious. Let us take man as he was formed after God breathed into him the breath of life. He was nature man. He was ready to develop. He was immoral. He was untied. He had to have a trial."

Go to the American Indian or into Africa and there is the religion of man. Religion is the basis of a man's life wherever we find him. The man whose life hasn't been guided by religion is exceptional. Take even the great Jefferson who was rated as a free thinker. His life is full of biblical quotations. Man is not naturally a superstitious animal. Modern man,

The Germans have progressed farther in the Verdun region and have succeeded in pushing along the railroad in the neighborhood of Regneville. The capture of Hill 265 by the Germans is admitted by Paris. British troops are operating with the French in the Verdun region.

British Strength Grows.

It was announced in the House of Commons today that the tonnage of the British army has been increased 1,000,000 since the outbreak of the war and that the strength of the air division has grown ten-fold.

German Dreadnoughts Out.

A dispatch from Rome, delayed two days by the British censor, says it is reported that twenty German dreadnoughts have left Kiel.

London, Mar. 7.—Though checked in their direct drive upon Verdun from the north and northeast, the German offensive was renewed with extraordinary violence, and with the capture of the village of Forges, west of the Meuse and ten miles northwest of Verdun, the crown prince has begun another drive to cut the Verdun-St. Moncheul railway, to stop the direct supply line from Paris and attack the fortress from the west.

In the meantime all French counter attacks were repulsed.

German attempts to debouch from Cote de L'Oie (Goose Hill) were stopped by French counter attacks and the Germans driven as far back as Forges, but they still hold the village and are shelling the French defenses from that position in preparation for a sweeping advance upon the railroad.

In the sector of Champagne between Haute Chevauche and Hill No. 285 the French admit the loss of another first line position.

Great War Is Making Man See Religion As Never Before

needs the church but why don't men go to church? Their wives go and they send their children to Sunday school. There is something lacking somewhere. There is a lack of a point of contact. The church is partly wrong and man is partly wrong.

I don't think that there is a fraternal organization in this country that doesn't use an open bible or acknowledge a belief in God. The basis of religion is in every man. The People's Sunday Evening club can be the point of contact.

We hear a great deal about the spirit of the age. The spirit of this age is truth. Men are demanding truth in politics. Our universities are for the very purpose of studying truth. Christ said, 'I am the truth.' The spirit of the age is co-operation. Take in our labor unions, on the high school athletic team, or in the boy scout movement, the individual must work as a unit.

But way above this is the spirit of service. You and I must work for society. That is what Christ meant when he said, 'Come unto me all ye that are heavy laden.' Christ wanted the worker. The spirit of the age is truth, co-operation and service. Service is the basis of religion. Let your faith strengthen your religion. Faith can develop in our work and in our religion."

COLLEGE PROFESSORS

A college professor is a pale, tired man who is trying to teach college boys Latin, sociology and other intellectual annoyances in their spare moments — the boys, not the professors.

Owing to the fact that professors are not allowed to be club members or to engage in their teaching, it is a very hard task indeed, and we should not blame them for taking so little interest in baseball and bridge whist.

A college professor is an information trust on some particular subjects. He begins to study when but a small boy, just as if he were preparing to become a great baseball star, and by the time he is 35 he has usually holed up enough wisdom to enable him to occupy a chair in some university for the rest of his life at a salary of $3,000. While college professors usually do not wear any uniform, except whiskers, you can generally tell one from the fact that he isn't running an automobile.

After a professor has secured a firm grip on his chair, he spends his life in teaching and study. Marvellous feats in instruction are performed by some professors, who can take an ordinary football player with massive legs and teach him to decline a Latin verb in less than a year, while other professors have been known to take a large-eyed young cigarette-holder in turned-up trousers and pompadour hat and teach him the names of a dozen English kings, without resorting to trepanning.

After a professor has taught for 50 years, he is supposed to retire and live happily on Andrew Carnegie who recently set aside eight carloads of money to form a pension fund for professors who have become so old that they are no longer able to prevent their students from building bonfires in the classroom. Mr. Carnegie's generous act has made it unnecessary for professors to spend so much time in private mathematical researches into the increased cost of living, and has consequently increased their value to their universities.

Professors are magnificent specialists, but need not be believed outside of their particular lines of wisdom. When a professor who is an absolute authority on early pleocene fauna attempts to regulate college athletics, he usually makes a mess of it, while more than one four-eyed phenomenon who knows everything worth knowing about early Aryan spelling has written books about modern marriages which might far better have been left in the ink-well.

Quickest, Surest Cough Remedy is Home-Made

Easily Prepared in a Few Minutes. Cheap but Unequaled

Some people are constantly annoyed from one year's end to the other with a persistent bronchial cough, which is wholly unnecessary. Here is a home-made remedy that gets right at the cause and will make you wonder what became of it. Get 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any druggist, pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking it at once. Gradually but surely you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether, thus ending a cough that you never thought would end. It also loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals the inflammation in a painful cough with remarkable rapidity. Ordinary coughs are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, winter coughs and bronchial asthma.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup mixture makes a full pint—enough to last a family a long time—at a cost of only 54 cents. Keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant. Easily prepared. Full directions with Pinex.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quinine, and is famous the world over for its ease, certainty and promptness in overcoming bad coughs, chest and throat colds.

Get the genuine. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces Pinex," and do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ing planned and good time is assured Percy W. Bushy, Press Correspondent.

There are many questions which you might ask concerning CHIROPRACTIC, but there are some things which you want to know:

1. What is Chiropractic? Chiropractic (Ki-ro-prak-tic) is a science of the cause and nature of disease, an art of unerringly locating this cause, and providing an original and adequate means of adjusting it more promptly, radically and permanently than any other system known.
2. Can Chiropractic cure every Dis-ease? Chiropractors do not claim to cure, but they do claim that Chiropractic Adjustments remove the cause of Dis-ease, and Nature cures.
3. How long does it take to get well? That depends on the extent of damage the dis-ease has made upon the tissues; and on the vitality of the patient.
4. Is Chiropractic accepted by the medical fraternity? The principles of medicine and of Chiropractic are so different that a medical practitioner cannot believe in Chiropractic and still practice medicine.
5. Do people condemn Chiropractic? Yes; but not people who have taken Chiropractic Adjustments from competent Chiropractors. Results tell.

BIG SHOE SALE

AT THE BEE HIVE

The recent purchase by Eichler Bros. of the D. A. Ford shoe stock was a fortunate one since the advance in leather for the past few months has increased the price of footwear from 15 to 25 per cent, and it is a well known fact that Mr. Ford has always carried the very best grades of shoes, and for this reason the public will have an opportunity of purchasing high grade footwear at remarkably low prices at the sale of this stock, which opens on Thursday morning in the basement of the Bee Hive. The stock has been arranged on tables and marked according to grades, and the public will find extraordinary bargains awaiting them during this big shoe sale.

DO YOU REALIZE

the important part that printed matter occupies in the conducting of your business?

In the purchasing of your printed matter there are three factors that are of especial interest to you.

- 1st—QUALITY. In this progressive age of competition where one's printed matter is often their principal sales representative it is imperative that you be properly represented
- 2nd—SERVICE. It is usually impossible to prepare copy far in advance of your needs; consequently when copy is ready you "want what you want when and how you want it" and in its preparation a printer who knows can be of untold assistance.
- 3rd—COST. You are interested in placing your order with a printer who will charge you but a fair price for the matter manufactured.

If you need the services of a modern, well-equipped printing plant for your order, be it large or small, where you will be assured of getting the above factors well combined, visit or phone

THE GREATER PREPAREDNESS.
Dr. Edmund J. James, president of the University of Illinois, in an address on "National Economic Program" before the Economic club of New York City, emphasized the proposition that the preparedness which the United States needs at present is not only a preparedness against war, but quite as much for peace as for fighting; and that if the political parties in their next campaign have in view the permanent instead of the temporary interests of the nation, they would emphasize these things in their declaration of principles.

President James stressed the fact that many of the most important progressive movements in the history of mankind were the direct outgrowth of war and the development of the popular emotion which a great war is likely to produce.

"We ought to be willing to devote to the positive advances of civilization some small fraction at any rate of the energy and money which our friends beyond the sea are devoting to war and war's results," he said, and continued:

"A national economic policy in a broad sense should be directed toward developing all the strength and power of our people, individually and collectively. This means we must think in terms of the nation, and no longer in terms of the city or the state. We must have a national policy, for state legislation in this field is inadequate, directed toward preserving the health of the women and children of the country by forbidding their employment in the industries under conditions prejudicial to their health. We must accompany this by a system of education which will take adequate care of the children thus driven out of the industries, and fit them by proper training for the callings they wish to follow.

"We must work toward a national policy which will forever banish that constant and deadening fear of lack of employment, inability to work because of accident or sickness, and poverty arising from old age and feebleness which rests like a pall upon such a large percentage of our people."

Pleading the necessity of developing a system of national defense, President James said:

"I am a pacifist in the sense of one who would like to see all war disappear, and the reign of the Prince of Peace come in; but this very Prince of Peace declared that he was come not to bring peace, but to bring a sword and his intention was to turn and overturn until justice and righteousness should prevail throughout the earth; and then peace would come. In the meantime, if we wish to be in a position to promote peace and righteousness, we must trust in God and keep our powder dry."

BABY WEEK.

There are 1727 communities considering some preparation for Baby Week, according to inquiries received by the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor, says the Freeport Standard. This number does not include those of whose interest in the campaign word has come to the bureau indirectly.

The letters about Baby Week are still coming in from every state in the Union, and from every type of community, such as a Colorado settlement 40 miles from a railroad, a club of women on one of the government reclamation projects, a Montana coal mining town with a large foreign population, a southern mill village, and a club of farm women in a middle western state.

Texas has its own Baby Week slogan—Baby Health is Texas Wealth—and Mississippi has started a competition to secure a slogan for that state. North Dakota reports plans for a state-wide essay contest in the public schools. In a few state campaigns the State Federation of Women's clubs, the State University Extension Department, the state health officials, and those who are especially interested in education, are all co-operating in the Baby Week campaign.

Many large cities are going to have a Baby Week. Definite plans are under way in Albany, Baltimore, Boston, Cleveland, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Philadelphia, Richmond, San Francisco, Washington and other cities. New York had a successful Baby Week in 1914, and will probably hold another one this year in the late spring.

It is suggested for Baby Week observance that the Children's Bureau lay special emphasis on the opportunity it affords for extending permanent work for infant welfare, such as infant welfare stations, visiting nurses, special nursing and instruction for prospective mothers, city inspection of milk, special work for the prevention of blindness, and little mothers' classes and home nursing instruction for school girls in the upper grades.

A BOUT OF RIOTOUS LIVING.

When a youth inherits a large fortune and spends it in riotous living, he incurs the scorn of sober-minded men. Yet today 400,000,000 of people have gone upon a bout of riotous living never before paralleled. This madness was inaugurated by the rulers of the nations involved, not the people. Had the few women of paramount authority in the five great nations concerned all been determined that there should be no war, there would have been no war. The war once launched has gone beyond the control of these men, just as a fire kindled by an incendiary in a city may extend into a mighty conflagration. At present there is no doubt that the majority of people in all of the nations involved long with an unutterable longing to stop the tremendous sacrifice of life, the further extension of already immeasurable suffering, and the awful waste of property—of they only could; and yet there seems to be no way—no way—to stop the conflagration until it burns itself out, as did the great fires of Chicago, Boston and San Francisco.

When, in the future, history shall determine upon whom rests the responsibility for bringing on the war, their names will bear a heavier load of guilt than has ever before been placed upon man. These men will stand as the most awful examples of responsibility betrayed which have been furnished by the annals of history. The murder of millions, the woe of tens of millions, and the impoverishment of nations will rest upon their heads.—President Van Hise, Wisconsin University.

"AT LARGE" AS EVER.

Mr. Bryan, it is reported, is to go to the St. Louis convention as a delegate-at-large. That is really the significant and disturbing fact about Mr. Bryan; whatever he happens to be at the time, delegate or anything else, he is always "at large."—Providence Journal.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

What Happened to
A Pair of Goldfish
That Lived In a Bowl.

Timmy Saw a Gold Flash.

ONCE upon a time," said daddy soon as the children stopped wiggling, "a pair of beautiful goldfish lived very happily in a big glass globe that a lady kept in her library. Exactly who fed and cared for them was the lady's little girl, Dorothy, a nice child, who loved best to romp outdoors rather than to clean a bowl. So the waitress often had to take care of the goldfish, and she sometimes felt so sorry for them, drifting around and around in their rather stupid circle, that she fed them too much."

"Tell us the fishes' names, daddy?" asked Evelyn.

"Fantail and Glow," said daddy. "Fantail was the bigger, and the end of his tail had streamers and fluff on it. Glow was just a goldfish and beautiful only for his color. Their globe was a very comfortable spot for fishes to live in. The bottom had nice white sand to lie on, with a handful of pretty colored stones to dash onto and play they were rocks on the bottom of a lake. A nice sprig of green seaweed made an excellent spot to hide in, and right in the middle of the globe stood a handsome arch that was the greatest fishy fun."

"If Dorothy had not been so lazy about changing the water in the bowl there never would have been a tragedy in this fish family. But one day when a sunbeam had shone on Fantail's head and made him all nervous—fishes like dark, cool places best, you know—and when the waitress had given him altogether too much to eat he sailed up to the top of the water and dashed around and around till his head really got quite dizzy. The faster he dashed the stronger he seemed to grow, till he at last struck his pretty tail right against the top of the globe, and zip! out of the globe he bounced right on to the fuzzy tablecloth. It was a fatal mistake. Fantail flopped over on his side, gasped a few times and died the way of all fish out of water. The library door creaked, and in glided Timmy, Dorothy's big Maltese cat. Timmy saw a gold flash on the table, hopped upon it, sniffed a choice morsel, gulped twice and licked his chops with satisfaction. Then he looked around and soon saw a blurry gold flash that seemed behind something when he tried to put his big, soft paw on it. He circled the globe twice, bumped his nose against something that felt glassy, stretched his neck and peered over into the pretty water. Right under his quivering mustaches round and round flashed a gold morsel. Timmy stretched out one skillful paw, stuck it daintily into the globe—cats don't like wet, you know—took a pin out of his paw and hooked it right behind Glow's left gill. Grinning with delight, he gulped twice and sneezed off a dorsal fin that had caught on his mustache. When Dorothy came in from romping all she found was a little gold in sitting on a fuzzy tablecloth."

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

Our instructions to the famous editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine were: "Get up a book of recipes of the things people like best. Find the best way to make and bake each one. Then write it out so plainly that even an inexperienced housewife can't have a failure."

"The Cook's Book" was the result. Some of the 90 recipes were originated, many of them were improved upon, and all were personally tested by this best known authority on cooking in America, and she tells so clearly how she made everything that one cannot go astray.

While some of the cakes and pastry are elaborate enough for any occasion, the recipes are all thoroughly practical and call for no expensive and unusual ingredients. In addition to telling how to make them, the book is beautifully illustrated in colors showing how to arrange and serve the dishes appetizingly.

More than half a million of "The Cook's Book" are now in use in American households. Yet the demand is constantly increasing. Many send for two or three at a time to give to friends or young housekeepers. Don't depend on borrowing one from a neighbor—have one of your own.

How to Get "The Cook's Book"

In every 25c can of K C Baking Powder is packed a colored certificate. Send us one of these certificates (paste it on a postal card if you like) with your name and address plainly written and "The Cook's Book" will be mailed free of charge. Only one book for each certificate.

LYMAN HOWE'S PICTURES.

The "little nonsense now and then" which is relished not alone "by the best of men," but by everybody, and which always forms such a delightful diversion in Howe's Travel Festival will be as much in evidence as ever on the forthcoming engagement at the Dixon opera house on Thursday, March 9, 1916. Without a doubt these clever comedy conceptions largely explain why Howe's productions are educational without the terrors implied by that grave adjective. Among the features of the new program may be mentioned a pictorial excursion to the Firth of Forth bridge, Scotland; to France, Italy, Holland, Madeira, Switzerland, Glacier National Park and an aeroplane ride above the clouds during which spectators experience the unique sensation not only of an aerial flight but also of peering through rifts in the clouds to vistas of greatest stretches of terra firma far below. Besides there will be some distinct novelties which at the same time prove the possibilities latent in cinematography. A marvelous example of this class shows animals moving at a speed three times slower than normal. The result is weird and uncanny yet absorbing interest because it shows details of these movements which the human eye never has or could detect. Of marine scenes there is a visualization showing the rigors and dangers to which a torpedo boat is exposed during a terrific gale on the high seas. Its bow is repeatedly submerged and huge waves sweep over the entire length of the decks.

FAMILY THEATRE

The vaudeville bills at the Family theatre of late have been exceptionally good but the one now on has them all beaten, in fact if you had your pick of all the vaudeville going you could not get a better bill. Today is its last appearance here so take advantage of the opportunity and see it.

"The Rack" is the feature film today.

"The Rack" did not die out with the dark ages. Blanche Gordon (Alice Brady) discovered that drinking deep of the dregs of life's bitter draught. Her indiscretion with Jack Freeman—that night that Tom Gordon, her husband, trapped her in a road house with Freeman—the quarrel—the shot that caused Freeman's death—all stretched her soul on "The Rack" of modern society, till it was bruised and torn.

Through sacrificial fires Blanche Gordon won into her own at last however and in her husband's arms found balm and consolation for cruel ordeal at the hands of man-made law.

A wonderfully vivid and startling production of a great drama holding a merciless mirror to modern life and marital relations.

Directed by Emile Chautard. Big cast of Broadway favorites.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Tonight "The Spirit of the Game" a Thanhouser feature in multiple reels, will be shown, an exciting drama of love and football with Morris Poster and Ethelo Cooke in the leading roles, together with an all star cast of Thanhouser favorites. Also on this bill is a Beauty comedy entitled, "Their First Quarrel" with Carol Holloway and John Sheehan in the leading roles, a splendid farce comedy, "The Mender," an American drama with Forrest Taylor and Helene Rosson in the leading roles, will also be shown.

Tomorrow night a Mutual masterpiece de luxe entitled, "The Deathlock," will be seen. This is a stirring drama of Alaska adventure filmed in the snow-bound wastes of the Klondike.

Last evening those who attended the Princess theatre were very much pleased with the first showing of the new Mutual Master pictures. This is just the beginning of these favorite photo plays which Manager Slothower has booked for this most popular theatre.

TWENTY BURNED TO DEATH

Disinfecting Solution Bursts into Flames—Victims Were Invalids.

El Paso, Tex., Mar. 7.—Twenty persons were burned to death and many others all prisoners of the city jail here are probably fatally burned as the result of a flash of flames from a disinfecting bath solution which was being administered to a large number of inmates of the jail most of whom are infirm. The cries and moans of the victims were heard for blocks.

The fire is said to have been started by one of the prisoners, who, it is declared, threw a match into the pool.

FAMILY OF SEVEN ARE SLAIN

Murderer Uses Razor, Hammer and Small Rifle.

Lawton, Okla., Mar. 7.—Seven members of the family of Dan Okane, a farmer, were found murdered in their home twelve miles southwest of Lawton. Okane himself lay beside the body of his father, probably fatally shot.

A hired man discovered the bodies. The murderer had used a razor, a hammer and a small caliber rifle. Those who were killed were: Okane's wife, an infant, four children ranging from four to ten years of age, and Okane's aged father, who lived with the family. The children were found in bed. Their throats had been slashed and their heads crushed. Mrs. Okane and the baby were shot to death. The rifle also had been used to slay the aged father.

Mrs. Farwell Is Set Free.

Washington, Mar. 7.—The three Americans, Mrs. Walter Farwell of Chicago, Miss Mitchell and Dr. Henry Forbes, reported to have been mistreated and interned by Bulgarian authorities in Monastir, have been released, according to reports to the state department from Lewis Einstein, special diplomatic agent in the Balkans.

HOUSE DEBATES LINER WARNING

ment caused a big sensation in the house.

Backs President.

In the senate Sutherland, republican, in a speech, stood squarely behind the president in his submarine negotiations with Germany.

Washington, Mar. 7.—President Wilson won a victory by the action of the house rules committee which agreed upon and brought into the house a special rule for four hours' debate on the McLenore warning resolution.

Besides the four-hour discussion on the resolution provision was made for forty-five minutes' debate on each side, to discuss the rule.

There will be three roll calls under the present plan; one to cut off discussion of the rule; another on the adoption or rejection of the rule and the last on the disposition of the McLenore resolution.

Mann Opposes Action.

When Representative Gardner declared in the house that there should be a clear vote of the subject Republican Leader Mann announced that he was against bringing the matter up in the house at all.

"I have believed," said Mr. Mann, "in letting the house attend to its constitutional duties and letting the President attend to his constitutional duties."

"I think if he deemed the help of the house necessary he would come before it. There is no complaint to make about what the President has done."

"I dare say that a few members would say that the McLenore resolution expresses their sentiment. But I would also say that if the majority of the members were to express their opinions they would say that American citizens at this time ought not to complicate the situation by traveling on armed merchant vessels."

Fears War from Joy Ride.

"I hope our citizens never will be put to the test of having to fight because some fool has involved us by entering upon a joy ride," he shouted.

Representative Flood, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, told the house that the issue was broader than any question of warning people off ships or of procedure and precedents. It was a question, he declared, of whether when the President is engaged in a diplomatic negotiation with a foreign government "we should stand with America or with the government with which America is negotiating."

"When the time comes to act," Mr. Flood added, "I hope that every patriotic congressman will be found standing behind the President."

Bryan Meets Supporters.

William Jennings Bryan made his headquarters at a hotel almost under the shadow of the capitol and conferred with many congressmen who are rated as Bryan men. All of them strongly favor a resolution to warn Americans off armed ships, which Mr. Bryan advocates, or are against preparedness.

M. D. Wingert of Franklin Grove was in Dixon today.

Jacob Ortigleson, who underwent a serious operation at the hospital Friday for the removal of 931 gall stones, is improving nicely.

Somehow or other, though one classes one's tooth brush, razor or comb and brush as personal possessions, one's clothes are not so regarded.

Yet, clothes are every whit as personal and should be so made that the personality is properly brought out and developed.

The individual methods of custom tailoring so develop that personality—and the advantages thus gained cannot be over-rated.

Editor Tells How D. D. D. Cured His Eczema

Clergyman and Banker Also Write

H. G. Hotchkiss, Editor Echo, Prophetstown, Ill.: Remember mine was eczema of fifteen years' standing. Now I am completely healed, after 4 bottles of D. D. D. I have seen a case of 25 years' standing cured. I have seen my own doctor cured of herber's itch, which he could not cure himself.

F. R. Tesser, Banker, Hopkinton, Ia.: I treated with three doctors for six months. They did me no good; my face and scalp were full of the disease. I applied D. D. D. Result—my face is as smooth as a baby's. Rev. L. J. Downing, Pastor 5th Av. Presbyterian Church, Roanoke, Va.: For three years I suffered intensely. I have at last found relief in D. D. D. I am no longer tortured—completely cured. I have no hesitancy in acknowledging the great virtue of this specific.

Druggists are glad to recommend this soothing, cooling liquid. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Your money back unless the first bottle relieves you. D. D. D. Soap keeps the skin healthy. Ask your druggist about both today.

302 DIE AS SHIP DASHES ON ROCK

Spanish Liner Principe de Asturias Lost Off Brazil.

VESSEL SINKS IN 5 MINUTES

French Steamer Viga Saves 143 from Wreck—Vessel Was Engaged in Passenger Service Between Barcelona and Brazil—She Was Built in 1914 at Glasgow.

Santos, Brazil, Mar. 7.—Three hundred and two persons are reported drowned in the wreck of the Spanish steamship Principe de Asturias, which struck a rock off Sebastiao Point and sank within five minutes.

There were 338 passengers aboard and a crew of 107 men. Of these only 57 passengers and 86 of the crew, or 143 in all, are known to have been saved. The suddenness with which the ship went down after striking makes it improbable that many can have been saved.

Panic Follows Crash.

Terrible scenes on board the ship and in the water about her as she went down are described by the survivors who have landed here. The crash when the vessel went on the rocks was so heavy that every one aboard was certain that the ship was lost.

There was a rush for the lifeboats, but the vessel began to settle so quickly that there was no time for any orderly procedure, and, while a few boats got away safely, some were overturned before they struck the water and others could not even be lowered until the ship had lurched and sunk. Most of those who were saved were picked up from the water as they swam about or clung to pieces of wreckage after the ship had disappeared.

Viga Saves 143.

The survivors have been landed here by the French steamer Viga, which reports that a Spanish ship is standing by to rescue any others who may have got away in boats or on rafts, but there is little hope that many others have escaped.

The Principe de Asturias was a large ship. She was launched at Glasgow in 1914. She was 460 feet long, with a beam of 58 feet and a depth of 29 feet. She was in the passenger service, plying between Barcelona, Spain, and Buenos Aires. The last heard from her until she struck the rock was when she left Barcelona on her westward voyage.

The spot where the Principe de Asturias was wrecked is near the entrance to Santos bay, at the western end of Sebastiao Island.

750,000 Bushels of Grain Are Destroyed.

Peoria, Ill., Mar. 7.—Fire here destroyed the Iowa elevator, owned by the Minneapolis & St. Louis railroad, together with 750,000 bushels of grain, largely the property of S. C. Bartlett & Co. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000.

The fire is the most disastrous in Peoria for many years, and for a time threatened to spread to a distillery and manufacturing plant nearby.

The efforts of the entire fire department were required to save surrounding buildings. Firemen were unable to check the elevator fire.

DO DANGEROUS TO OVERLOOK

DIXON PEOPLE WILL DO WELL TO HEED THE WARNING

To have good health, the digestion, heart, lungs and kidneys must work perfectly. When there is any thing wrong with the digestion, heart or lungs, a very noticeable pain gives prompt warning. Kidney trouble is more easily overlooked, however, and too often gains a long start. But kidney trouble does give early signs, and backache, headache, dizzy spells, rheumatic pains, too frequent, scanty or painful urination should not be neglected. When these warnings appear, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the reliable, success, strongly recommended kidney remedy. Assist the medicine by taking things easier, reducing the diet and the use of liquors. A severe attack of kidney disease may be avoided. Doan's Kidney Pills have won the grateful praise of Dixon people. Read this Dixon resident's endorsement.

Mrs. J. L. Fine, 1006 Peoria Ave., Dixon, says: "I have suffered for years from kidney trouble. My back ached and pained so severely that I had to stay in bed. I had headaches and dizzy spells and specks appeared before my eyes. My wrists and ankles also swelled. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Leake Bros. Co.'s Drug store and they helped me. They have never failed to give satisfactory results."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Fine had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

PROTESTS LID TRIALS
BY LAWBREAKING JURY
Sangamon County Sheriff Sees
Anarchy in Situation.
Springfield, Ill., Mar. 7.—"Unless things can be changed in Sangamon county regarding the selection and drawing of jurors the county will rapidly drift into a state of anarchy and it will be impossible to convict for violation in any class of criminal cases."
Dr. John A. Wheeler, "clean-up" sheriff of Sangamon county, made this statement in connection with his objections to the panel of jurymen who are called to try his "clean-up" cases in the county court.
"According to the best information
I have been able to obtain concerning the county court venire of jurors for the February term, seven of the twenty-six are either saloonkeepers or ex-saloonkeepers," said the sheriff.

N. D. BAKER GETS WAR PORTFOLIO
Former Cleveland Mayor Succeeds Garrison.

WAS PUPIL AT JOHNS HOPKINS

As Successor and Adviser of Tom Johnson He Made Name for Himself in Cleveland Traction Fight—Declined Previous Offer of Cabinet Position.
Washington, Mar. 7.—Newton D.
Baker, aged forty-five, twice mayor of Cleveland, disciple of Tom Johnson and effective supporter of President Wilson at the Baltimore convention, will be secretary of war in the President's cabinet.
Baker, who twice declined an invitation to become Secretary of the Interior when the President was first forming his cabinet, has accepted the place made vacant by Lindsey M. Garrison's resignation. The new secretary is a thorough believer in national preparedness.
Experienced in Politics.
In the appointment of Baker the President, it is said, meets a qualification which it has been intimated is considered important—that the new secretary be an attorney from the middle West. He has had the rough-and-tumble experience of politics. During all of Johnson's nine years' fighting to obtain three-cent street car fare for Cleveland Baker advised him as city solicitor and fought with him shoulder to shoulder in the courts of the city, state and nation.
Baker was a student under President Wilson when the latter was an instructor at Johns Hopkins university.
Secretary to Cabinet Officer.
Mr. Baker was born in Martinsburg,
W. Va., and at the age of 25 was appointed private secretary to Postmaster General Wilson in President Cleveland's cabinet. In 1897 he began the practice of law at Martinsburg, but not long thereafter moved to Cleveland, where he became city solicitor in 1902. He held this office for ten years until his election as mayor. In 1914 he was re-elected mayor for a two-year term. Mr. Baker married
Miss Elizabeth Leopold of Pottstown, Pa.
Mr. Baker has received degrees of Johns Hopkins and Washington and Lee universities. For years he has been closely identified with the reform movement in Cleveland.

TWELVE KILLED, 33
INJURED IN AIR RAID
Nine of Fatalities Are Women and Children.
London, Mar. 7.—Twelve persons were killed and thirty-three injured in a Zeppelin raid Sunday. Three Zeppelins took part in the attack. This information was given out officially.
The dead consist of three men, four women and five children. The area visited included Yorkshire, Lincolnshire, Rutland, Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire, Norfolk, Essex and Kent.
The censor permits publication of a few incidents in connection with the raid. In one of the principal areas visited a block of workmen's dwellings was demolished. A woman and her four children, all under nine years, were killed. The woman's husband was taken to a hospital in a serious condition.
In another locality a doctor's house was destroyed, but the doctor and his family had left the building before it was struck. In another case a pensioner ninety years old was burned to death in his bed.
The bombs dropped by the air craft were some of them incendiary and some explosive.
